AN ORDINANCE AMENDING PROVO CITY CODE REGARDING CIVIL INFRACTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC. (20-118)

WHEREAS, the State of Utah has been in a declared state of emergency due to novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) since March 6, 2020, which worldwide disease outbreak has been characterized by the World Health Organization as a pandemic; and

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) advises that COVID-19 is easily spread through the air from person to person who are in close contact with one another;
and

WHEREAS, federal, state, and local authorities have recommended that individuals limit public gatherings, wear face masks, and follow social distancing guidelines; and

WHEREAS, a BYU study, Making sense of the research on COVID-19 and masks, concluded that “masks could be one of the most powerful and cost-effective tools to stop COVID-19 and accelerate the economic recovery;” and

WHEREAS, some 70,000 BYU and UVU students are returning to school over the next few weeks, many of whom will live, work, and recreate in Provo and Orem; and

WHEREAS, another BYU study, Provo City and BYU need to be Partners during COVID-19, notes that while BYU has done extensive work to reduce the spread of COVID-19 through on-campus networks, the close proximity and interconnectedness of the students with the larger community off campus can seed larger outbreaks of the disease; therefore, the study recommends that masks be required in all businesses and enclosed spaces outside the home and that gatherings larger than 50 people not be permitted; and

WHEREAS, the State of Utah is promoting the Mask Up Utah campaign and Provo City Mayor Kaufusi is promoting Mask Month; and

WHEREAS, without greater compliance to the State’s “Phased Guidelines for the General Public and Businesses to Maximize Public Health and Economic Reactivation,” including social distancing and the wearing of masks, to slow the transmission of COVID-19, the city, county, and state risk greater restrictions being imposed on businesses and school operations, including possible closures, and the adverse corollary effects of such additional restrictions on our local economy and families; and
WHEREAS, on August 20, 2020, the Municipal Council passed a resolution calling for more measures to be implemented to slow the transmission of COVID-19, and to encourage all of our citizens to take necessary actions to protect the health and allay the fears of our fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, on August 20, 2020 and August 25, 2020, the Municipal Council met to ascertain the facts regarding this matter and receive public comment, which facts and comments are found in the public record of the Council’s consideration, and passed the then current version of this Ordinance 2020-36; and

WHEREAS, on August 27, 2020, Mayor Michelle Kaufusi vetoed Ordinance 2020-36 and submitted to the Council her written statement of objections; and

WHEREAS, on August 27, 2020, the Municipal Council met to reconsider Ordinance 2020-36 in light of that veto, as provided in Utah Code Section 10-3b-204(3); and

WHEREAS, after considering the facts presented to the Municipal Council, the Council finds that (i) Provo City Code should be amended as set forth below, and (ii) such action furthers the health, safety, and general welfare of the citizens of Provo City.

PART II:

Provo City Code Chapter 9.25 is hereby enacted as follows:

Chapter 9.25 COVID-19 Response

9.25.010. Purpose.

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure a coordinated implementation of practices which slow the transmission of COVID-19 by requiring all individuals living or working within or visiting Provo, Utah, to wear face coverings while (1) in indoor areas accessible to the public, including without limitation businesses and City buildings, where social distancing is not possible, reasonable, or prudent, (2) in attendance at large outdoor gatherings where social distancing is not possible, reasonable, or prudent, and (3) in attendance at large indoor gatherings. All provisions of this Chapter shall be interpreted to effectuate this intent.

Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, any individual within Provo shall be required to wear a face covering that completely covers the nose and mouth when in indoor areas accessible to the public where consistent social distancing of at least six feet from individuals not dwelling in the same household is not possible, reasonable, or prudent.

(1) Any individual within Provo who is in attendance at an indoor public gathering of more than fifty (50) individuals shall be required to wear a face covering that completely covers the nose and mouth regardless of whether or not social distancing is possible.

(2) Any individual within Provo who is in attendance at an outdoor public gathering of more than twenty-five (25) individuals shall be required to wear a face covering that completely covers the nose and mouth where consistent social distancing of at least six feet is not possible, reasonable, or prudent.
(3) It shall be unlawful to organize a public gathering in contravention of subsections (1) or (2) and promote such as an event without requiring attendees to wear face coverings. It shall also be unlawful to organize an indoor public gathering of more than fifty (50) individuals and fail to provide clear notice at the public entrance or entrances to the gathering of the requirements of this Section.

The following individuals are exempt from wearing a face covering:
(1) Individuals under five years of age;
(2) Individuals with a medical condition, mental health condition, or disability that prevents wearing a face covering;
(3) Individuals who are hearing impaired, or communicating with an individual who is hearing impaired, where the ability to see the mouth is essential for communication;
(4) Individuals for whom wearing a face covering would create a risk to the individual related to their work, as determined by local, state or federal regulators or workplace safety guidelines;
(5) Individuals who are obtaining a service involving the nose or face for which temporary removal of the face covering is necessary to perform the service;
(6) Individuals who are seated at a restaurant or other establishment that offers food or beverage service, while they are eating or drinking; and
(7) Individuals who are purchasing a product or receiving a service that requires identification may briefly remove a face covering, as necessary, so that the retailer or service provider can verify identity; and
(8) Individuals engaging in strenuous physical activity where circumstances are not reasonably conducive to wearing a face covering, such as swimming, running, fitness classes, etc.

(1) All businesses open to the public where face coverings are required by this Chapter shall post a notice in a clearly visible location at or near the public entrance or entrances to such place of business that declares that face coverings are required by law.

(2) Organizers of indoor public gatherings larger than fifty (50) individuals shall comply with the requirements of Section 9.25.030.

Violations of this Chapter are a civil infraction and shall be subject to the provisions of Provo City Code Chapter 9.17.

9.25.070. Expiration of this Chapter.
This Chapter shall expire and be automatically repealed on November 15, 2020 unless by ordinance the Council amends this section on or by October 20, 2020.

PART III:

A. If a provision of this ordinance conflicts with a provision of a previously adopted ordinance, this ordinance shall prevail.

B. This ordinance and its various sections, clauses and paragraphs are hereby declared to be severable. If any part, sentence, clause or phrase is adjudged to be unconstitutional or invalid, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

C. The Municipal Council hereby directs that the official copy of the Provo City Code be updated to reflect the provisions enacted by this ordinance.

D. As set forth in Utah Code Section 10-3b(204(4)(c), this ordinance shall take effect upon being recorded in accordance with Utah Code 10-3-713.
